SUMMER PROGRAM 2022

Dear Parent or Guardian:

We are pleased to announce that in the Summer of 2022, ACHIEVE will again be sponsoring our Summer Program. ACHIEVE's Summer Program provides a variety of activities and experiences for students who have special needs while maintaining the skills they learned during the school year in a fun and challenging way. It runs for a six week period during July and August; please refer to the attached information packet for exact dates, times, and payment information. Our 2022 Summer Program will be held at Calvin Coolidge Elementary School, 261 Robinson St. Binghamton, 13904.

ELIGIBILITY FOR THE PROGRAM

Students attending the ACHIEVE Summer Program must meet the following criteria:
- Reside in Broome, Chenango or Tioga County
- Must be between 5-21 years of age
- Must have an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or a 504 plan in the school

Please Note: All new applicants will be reviewed, students who require 1-1 supervision, intensive treatment, or who have serious emotional and/or behavioral issues may not be appropriate for this program. We strive to be as inclusive as possible, so please contact myself with any specific concerns.

Attached please find your 2022 Summer Program Application Packet:
- Section One: Information Packet – including program cost (Keep for your records)
- Section Two: Student Application – including payment information (Return Completed to ACHIEVE)
- Section Three: Academic Information (Return to ACHIEVE with IEP or 504)
- Section Four: Physician's Certificate (Return to ACHIEVE with PPD test results if applicable)

For more information about ACHIEVE Summer Program, or questions about the application process, please contact myself at tstasko@achieveny.org, or by phone at 607-231-5235.

Hope to see you this summer!

125 Culer Pond Road
Binghamton, NY 13905

LUNCHES

It is possible that we may be able to offer free lunches as was provided in past years, however, we are not able to make that determination at this time. Therefore, parents/guardians should be prepared to have a packed lunch each day for their student. Notifications will be sent as soon as a determination has been made.

ACCEPTANCE NOTIFICATION

Program acceptance letters and additional program details, including if we will be able to offer free lunches again this year will be mailed the week of June 15th.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation may be provided by your home school district. Pick up and drop off times will be determined at a later date and communicated through the local school districts. ACHIEVE does not provide transportation to and from program, If your school district does not provide transportation you will be responsible. Please direct transportation questions to your home School District.

SUMMER WORK STUDY PROGRAM

The Summer Work Study Program offers students (15-21 years of age) a unique opportunity to work an hour per day, learning valuable vocational skills they will need to transition out of school into employment. Additionally, 2 hours a week of curriculum time reinforces these skills. This successful program teaches them to; follow directions, team work, communication skills, responsibility, and much more, all while earning a paycheck! Space is limited. If you would like your student to be considered for this program please indicate by placing and "X" in the YES box on page 2 of the Student Application.

Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or 504

For a student to attend Summer Program they must have a current IEP or 504. Your packet includes an Academic Sheet, (Section Three), Please sign the top of the form and give it to your child's teacher to be completed. Attach the IEP or 504 to the form and return it to ACHIEVE. Students graduating in 2022 are still eligible to attend ACHIEVE Summer Program.

Physician's Certificate and PPD MANTOUX TEST

Arrangements should be made with your physician's office for your student to have a PPD Mantoux test as well as a follow up appointment with your physician to have the test read. The Summer Program medical staff must review the Physician's Certificate form (Section 4) before a student is accepted for the Summer Program. Again this year; Students who have attended ACHIEVE's Summer Program for TWO consecutive years, will not be required to have a PPD test this year. The Physician's Certificate form must still be completed.

Communication

Parents can download the Remind App on their phone or tablet to get reminders from counselors as well as communicate directly with the Head Counselors.

Looking forward to a great summer!

ACHIEVE Summer Program Participant Code of Conduct

It is the goal of ACHIEVE Summer Program to provide your child with a memorable fun-filled summer while maintaining the skills they learned through their school year, in a safe and respectful environment. We recognize that harassment; bullying and bad behavior of others can be a detriment to these goals. Please review the following with your student.

Each Student at ACHIEVE Summer Program will:

- Be polite and respectful of everyone, including students, counselors, staff and visitors.
- Not use profanity or insult others.
- Bring a positive attitude to program every day.
- Keep hands, feet, and objects to myself and never intentionally harm another student or counselor.
- Not Bully, witnessing another student being bullied must be reported to a counselor.
- Not Cyber-Bully another student through social medial. Cyberbullying is the use of cell phones or other devices to send or post emails, text messages or images intended to harass another person.
- Follow my individual Counselor's instructions, class rules and expectations at all times.
- Not litter, steal, damage property or make false 911 calls.
- Only use cell phones and other electronic devices during times designated by my counselor.
- Be encouraging and supportive of my fellow students and never tear them down.
- Participate to the best of my ability in all Summer Program activities.
- Follow COVID 19 safety guidelines, including, but not limited to: social distancing when eating, wearing a face covering unless medically unable to tolerate.

Failure to follow the code of conduct could result in disciplinary actions, including: a letter of warning sent home, a phone call for pickup from program, suspension from the program and possible removal from the program. The discipline will depend on severity of the action(s) and the frequency that they occur.

I recognize that ACHIEVE Summer Program is held at Binghamton City School District. We are guests at their facility. It is their right to suspend a student should they steal, damage property, or make false 911 calls.

Your signature on the acknowledgement page of your application (Page 6), attesting you have read and understand this code of conduct, and reviewed it with your student is required for acceptance to Summer Program.

ACHIEVE
NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes the privacy practices of NYSARC, Inc, Broome-Tioga County Chapter, dba ACHIEVE (Organization) and the privacy rights of the people we serve. It will describe how information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information.

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Privacy rule DOES NOT CHANGE the way you get services from the Organization, or the privacy rights you have always had under New York State Mental Hygiene Law. The Privacy rule adds some details about how you can exercise your rights.

PLEASE REVIEW THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

This notice is effective as of December 1, 2013

Our Privacy Commitment to You:

The Organization provides many different services to you. We understand that information about you and your family is personal. We are committed to protecting your privacy and sharing information only with those who need to know and are allowed to see the information to assure quality services for you. The Organization is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information. This notice tells you how the Organization uses and discloses information about you. It describes your rights and what the Organization's responsibilities are concerning information about you. When we use the word "you" in this Notice, we also mean your personal representative. Depending on your circumstances and in accordance with state law, this may mean your guardian, your health care proxy, or your involved parent, spouse, or involved adult family member.

If you have questions about any part of this notice or if you want more information about the privacy practices at the Organization, please contact:

Julye L. Bush, Corporate Compliance Officer, Privacy Officer
Address: 125 Cutler Pond Rd, Binghamton, NY. 13905
Phone: Corporate Compliance Hotline (607) 723-8361, Select #8
E-mail: jbush@achieveny.org

Who will follow this Notice:

All people who work for the Organization will follow this notice. This includes employees, persons the Organization contracts with who are authorized to enter information in your record or need to review your record to provide services to you, and volunteers who the Organization allows to assist you.

What information is protected:

All information that we create or keep that relates to your health or care and treatment, including but not limited to your name, address, birth date, social security number, your medical information, your service or treatment plan, and other information (including photographs or other images) about your care in our programs, is considered protected information. In this Notice, we refer to protected information as protected health information or "PHI". We create and collect information about you and we keep a record of the care and services you receive though this agency. The information about you is kept in a record; it may be in the form of paper documents in a chart or on a computer. We refer to the information that we create, collect, and keep as a "record" in this Notice.

Your Health Information Rights:

Unless otherwise required by law, your record is the physical property of the Organization, but the information in it belongs to you and you have the right to have your information kept confidential. You have the following rights concerning your PHI:

- You have a right to see or inspect your PHI and obtain a copy of the information. Some exceptions apply, such as information compiled for use in court or administration proceedings. NOTE: The Organization requires you to make your request for records in writing to the Privacy Officer. You may request copies in paper format or in an electronic form such as a CD, portable device, or memory stick. In some instances, the Agency may charge you for copies.
- If we deny your request to see your information, you have the right to request a review of that denial. The CEO/designee will appoint a licensed health care professional to review the record and decide if you may have access to the record.
- You have the right to ask the Organization to change or amend information that you believe is incorrect or incomplete. We may deny your request in some cases, for example, if the record was not created by the Organization or if after reviewing your request, we believe the record is accurate and complete.
- You have the right to request a list of the disclosures that the Organization has made of your PHI. The list, however, does not include certain disclosures, such as those made for treatment, payment, and health care operations, or disclosures made to you or made to others with your permission.

- have the right to request a restriction on uses or disclosures of your health information related to treatment, payment, health care operations, and disclosures to involved family. The Organization, however, is not required to agree to your request.
- You have the right to request that the Organization communicates with you in a way that will help keep your information confidential. You may request alternate ways of communication with you or request that You communications are forwarded to alternative locations.
- You will be notified if there is a breach of unsecured PHI containing your information; we are required by federal law to provide notification to you.
- To request access to your clinical information or to request any of the rights listed here, you may contact:

Julye L. Bush, Corporate Compliance Officer, Privacy Officer
Address: 125 Cutler Pond Rd, Binghamton, NY. 13905
Phone: Confidential Hotline – (607) 723-8361, Select #8
E-mail: jbush@achieveny.org

We will require you to submit your requests in writing to the Privacy Officer.

NOTE: Other regulations may restrict access to HIV/AIDS information and federally protected drug and alcohol information. See any special authorizations or consent forms that will specify what information may be released and when, or contact the Privacy Officer listed above.

Our Responsibilities to You:

We are required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your information in accordance with federal and state laws.
- Give you this Notice that tells you how we will keep your information private.
- Tell you if we are unable to agree to a limit on the use or disclosure that you request.
- Carry out reasonable requests to communicate information to you by special means or at other locations.
- Get your written permission to use or disclose your information except for the reasons explained in this notice.
- We have the right to change our practices regarding the information we keep. If practices are changed, we will tell you by giving you a new notice. Notices will be posted on our website: www.achieveny.org

How Organization Uses and Discloses Your Health Information:

The Organization may use and disclose information without your permission for the purposes described below. For each of the categories of uses and disclosures, we explain what we mean and offer an example. Not every use or disclosure is described, but all of the ways we will use or disclose information will fall within these categories.

- Treatment: The Organization will use your information to provide you with treatment and services. We may disclose information to doctors, nurses, psychologists, social workers, and other Organization personnel, volunteers, or interns who are involved in providing your care. For example, involved staff may discuss your information to develop and carry out your treatment or service plan and other Organization staff may share your information to coordinate different services you need, such as medical tests, respite care, transportation, etc. We may also need to disclose your information to other providers outside of the Organization who are responsible for providing you with services.
- Payment: The Organization will use your information so that we can bill and collect payment from you, a third party, an insurance company, Medicare or Medicaid, or other government agencies. For example, we may need to provide your health care insurer with information about the services you received in our agency or through one of our programs so they will pay us for the services. In addition, we may disclose your information to receive prior approval for payment for services you may need.
- Health Care Operations: The Organization will use clinical information for administrative operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to operate Organization programs and to make sure all individuals receive appropriate, quality care. For example, we may use information for quality improvement to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff in serving you.

We may also disclose information to clinicians and other personnel for on-the-job training. We will share your health information with other Organization staff for the purposes of obtaining legal services from our attorneys, conducting fiscal audits, and for fraud and abuse detection and compliance through our Compliance Program. We may also disclose information to our business partners who need access to the information to perform administrative or professional services on our behalf.

Other Uses and Disclosures that Do Not Require your Permission:

In addition to treatment, payment, and health care operations, the Organization will use your information without your permission for the following reasons:

- When we are required to do so by federal or state law.
- For public health reasons, including prevention and control of disease, injury or disability, reporting births and deaths, reporting child abuse or neglect, reporting reactions to medication or problems with products, and to notify people who may have been exposed to a disease or are at risk of spreading the disease.
- To report domestic violence and adult abuse or neglect to government authorities if necessary to prevent serious harm.
- For health oversight activities, including audits, investigations, surveys and inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws. Health oversight activities do not include investigations that are not related to the receipt of health care or receipt of government benefits in which you are the subject.
- For judicial and administrative proceedings, including hearings and disputes. If you are involved in a court or administrative proceeding we will disclose information if the judge or presiding officer orders us to share the information.
- For law enforcement purposes, in response to a court order or subpoena, to report a possible crime, to identify a suspect or witness or missing person, to provide identifying data in connection with a criminal investigation, and to the district attorney in furtherance of a criminal investigation of client abuse.
- Upon your death, to coroners or medical examiners for identification purposes or to determine cause of death, and to funeral directors to allow them to carry out their duties.
- To organ procurement organizations to accomplish cadaver, eye, tissue, or organ donations in compliance with state law.
- For research purposes when you have agreed to participate in the research and the Privacy Oversight Committee has approved the use of the clinical information for the research purposes.
- To prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to your health and safety or someone else's.
- To authorized federal officials for intelligence and other national security activities authorized by law or to provide protective services to the President and other officials.
- To correctional institutions or law enforcement officials if you are an inmate and the information is necessary to provide you with health care, protect your health and safety or that of others, or for the safety of the correctional institution.
- To governmental agencies that administer public benefits if necessary to coordinate the covered functions of the programs.

Uses and Disclosures that Require Your Agreement:

The Organization may disclose information to the following persons if we tell you we are going to use or disclose it and you agree or do not object:

- To family members and personal representatives who are involved in your care if the information is relevant to their involvement and to notify them of your condition and location.
- To disaster relief organizations that need to notify your family about your condition and location should a disaster occur.
- For fundraising purposes, we may disclose information to a charitable program that assists us in fundraising with your permission. You have the right to refuse or opt out if you previously agreed to communications regarding fundraising.
- For marketing of health- related services, we will not use your health information for marketing communications without your permission.

Authorization Required For All Other Uses and Disclosures:

- For all other types of uses and disclosures not described in this Notice, Organization will use or disclose information only with a written authorization signed by you that states who may receive the information, what information is to be shared, the purpose of the use or disclosure and an expiration for the authorization. Written authorizations are always required for use and disclosure for marketing purposes, such as agency newsletters and press releases.

  Note: If you cannot give permission due to an emergency, the Organization may release information in your best interest. We must tell you as soon possible after releasing the information.

  You may revoke your authorization at any time. If you revoke your authorization in writing we will no longer use or disclose your information for the reasons stated in your authorization. We cannot, however, take back disclosures we made before you revoked and we must retain information that indicates the services we have provided to you.

Changes to this Notice:

We reserve the right to change this Notice. We reserve the right to make changes to terms described in this Notice and to make the new notice terms effective to all information that the Organization maintains. We will post the new notice with the effective date on our website at _www.achieveny.org and in our facilities. In addition, we will offer you a copy of the revised notice at your next scheduled service planning meeting.
